General Information - Filing Requirements

I. Who Should File:

A. Candidates for the offices of Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Auditor of Public Accounts, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, State Board of Education, Public Service Commission, Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, State Legislature, Board of Directors of a Public Power District, Mayor and City Council of the cities of Omaha and Lincoln, and any elective county office.

B. Officeholders

1. Any person holding an office listed in 1A above.
2. A member of a land use planning commission or zoning commission of any county with a population of more than 100,000 residents.
3. State officeholders, state officials and state employees specified in §49-1493 of the Nebraska Statutes or Title 4, Chapter 2 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

II. When and Where to File:

- A. Candidates for the elective offices listed in 1A, above, should file with the Commission and with the election official with whom the candidate files in order to appear on the ballot. Depending on the office sought, this could be the county clerk, county election commissioner or Secretary of State. The election official will not accept the filing to appear on the ballot unless a Statement of Financial Interests is properly filed.
- B. Officeholders, officials and employees referred to in 1B, above, must file with the Commission on or before April 1st of each year in which they hold the position. This filing should not be made with the election official.

C. Officeholders, officials and employees referred to in 1B, above, who are appointed to the position must file with the Commission prior to assuming the duties of the office or position. If confirmation is required, the filing should be made prior to assuming the duties of office or position or prior to confirmation, whichever comes first. This filing need not be made with the election official.

D. Within 30 days after leaving an office or a position listed in 1B, above, a statement should be filed with the Commission. The filing should cover a period beginning with the closing date of the prior statement through the date that the person left the office or position. This filing need not be made with the election official.

III. Potential Conflict of Interest Filings:

The individuals listed under 1B above are required to file a Potential Conflict of Interest Statement (NADC Form C-2) whenever a potential conflict of interest arises. A public official or public employee has a potential conflict of interest if he or she is faced with taking an official action or making an official decision which could result in a financial benefit or financial detriment to: a) the public official; b) a member of his or her immediate family; or c) a business with which he or she is associated. The financial benefit must be distinguishable from that experienced by the general public or a broad segment of it.

IV. FORMS:

- A. Hard copies of forms may be obtained by contacting the Commission office. Forms may also be obtained from the Commission's website at <http://nadc.nol.org>.
- B. Forms may be downloaded onto a computer hard drive, completed, printed, and mailed or otherwise sent to the Commission. A copy of the filing may be preserved on the hard drive of a computer for future reference.

Definitions

Business - means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, firm, enterprise, franchise, association, organization, self-employed individual, holding company, joint stock company, receivership, trust, activity or entity.

Business with which the individual is associated - means a business (1) in which the individual is a partner, Limited Liability Company Member, director, or officer, or (2) in which the individual or a member of the individual's immediate family is a stockholder of closed corporation stock worth one thousand dollars or more at fair market value or which represents more than a five percent equity interest, or is a stockholder of publicly traded stock worth ten thousand dollars or more at fair market value or which represents more than ten per cent equity interest. An individual who occupies a confidential professional relationship protected by law shall be exempt from this section. This section shall not apply to publicly traded stock under a trading account if the filer reports the name and address of the stockbroker.

Elective office - means a public office filled by an election, except for federal offices. A person who is appointed to fill a vacancy in a public office which is ordinarily elective holds an elective office.

Financial Institution - As used in section 49-1496, financial institution shall mean a bank or banking corporation as defined in section 8-101, a federal bank or branch bank, an insurance company providing a loan on an insurance policy, a small loan company, of a state or federal savings and loan association or credit union, the federal government or any political subdivision thereof.

Gift - means a payment, subscription, advance, forbearance, rendering or deposit of money, services, or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is given therefor. Gift shall not include a campaign contribution otherwise reported as required by law, a commercially reasonable loan made in the ordinary course of business, a gift received from a relative, a breakfast, luncheon, dinner or other refreshments consisting of food or beverage for immediate consumption, or the occasional provision of transportation within the State of Nebraska.

Relative - means any person related to another by blood or marriage to the third degree of consanguinity, including a foster parent, foster child, step-parent, stepchild, and adopted children and their adoptive parents.

Income - means any money or anything of value received, or to be received as a claim on future services, whether in the form of a fee, salary, expense, allowance, forbearance, forgiveness, interest, dividend, royalty, rent, capital gain, or any other form of recompense then constituting income under the Internal Revenue Code. You need not report a distribution of principal or the income of an irrevocable trust of a member of your immediate family.

Person - means a business, individual, proprietorship, firm, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, syndicate, business trust, labor organization, company, corporation, association, committee, or any other organization or group of persons acting jointly.
